'B' RACE TO TAKE DEFINITE SHAPE AFTER FRIDAY GAMES

SCORPS PLAY

ARMY ELEVEN

Eagles Take On College Squad Here This Afternoon

Nine major games, four of which have an intersectional tang, are on the Valley grid program for this week end.

After Friday, the "B" race should begin to take on definite shape. The King's X season is nearing its close and each game counts in the win and lost columns.

The most important "B" game this week finds La Feria at Donna. The cavaliers and Redskins are undefeated. Coach Claude Dailey's Donnaltes are being hailed as potential champions. They have swept everything before them in handy style so far. The Redskins will likely trounce La Feria without extending themselves.

Pharr-San Juan-Alamo, another undefeated team, goes to Mission for a clash with the Eagles. Mission has not played a "B" game as yet, but held the Harlingen Cards well in the opening fray of the year.

The intersectional clashes include Harlingen at A. & I. freshmen, Kingsville at San Benito, and Falfurrias at McAllen. All of these should be hard fought encounters, but the odds favor each of the Valley squads winning. The McAllen game will be under the floodlights.

The fourth intersectional tilt will find Ft. Sam Houston here for a clash with the B. J. C. Tickets for this game on Saturday are on sale at downtown points.

Opening the week, the Brownsville high Eagles play a college lightweight team here today. A reserve squad plays at El Jardin tomorrow and at Lyford Friday.

Red Wings Are Set

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 6.—(P)—A single victory stood between the Rochester Redwings and their second successive "Little World Series" championship today.

The International league champions, led by Billy Southworth, gained a commanding lead of four games to one by turning back St. Paul, American association titleholders, yesterday, 4 to 3. St. Paul now is faced with the almost impossible task of winning all four remaining games.

The sixth game today and all other games necessary to wind up the current series will be played here.

Valley's First Night Grid Game Is at McAllen Friday

Earnshaw Grabs Series Out of Fire for Connie

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—(P)—"Big Jarge" Earnshaw, one of the greatest pitchers ever to tread a World Series mound had brought the smile back today to the face of an aged gentleman pointing toward his third consecutive championship of the world.

The old gentleman was Connie Mack, manager of the world champion Athletics, and as he stood in the tiny tower of his office in Shibe Park today, pondering his pitching selection for the fifth game of the World Series with the St. Louis Cardinals, there was nothing but joy shining out through every wrinkle in his 68-year-old face, and thanksgiving in his heart for the magnificent pitching ability of this 30-year-old product of Swarthmore college.

"Big Jarge," stepping into the breach where the mighty Robert Moses Grove had failed, turned in one of the World Series masterpieces of all time yesterday, swinging the Athletics back from the abyss of almost certain defeat to an even footing again with the Cardinals. They have two victories apiece after the first four games of

EARNSHAW IS GIVEN PRAISE

Two-Hit Exhibition Said Great Stunt In Big Series

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—(P)—George Livingston Earnshaw strode from the box after setting down the Cardinals in the first inning of the fourth game as much as to say:

"You birds get a few hits and runs, for a change, and let's go. I feel as though I've got a good game in my system."

The Athletics got the necessary runs and Earnshaw pitched so brilliant a two-hit shutout, baffling all but the ubiquitous Pepper Martin, that the old-timers, in convention last evening, voted the tall right-hander the "greatest money pitcher of all time."

"I know it will sound extravagant to you," remarked Buck Herzog, former infield star of the Giants at a time when Christy Mathewson was at his best. "I am a National leaguer and I want the Cards to win. I have seen Matty and Bender when they were in their prime, pitching marvelous baseball."

"But I will tell you truthfully I never saw a better pitched ball game than Earnshaw hurled. It could have been no better mechanically, even if he had pitched a no-hit game. This Martin just happens to be too hot to handle. He will hit anything. The two hits he made does not take much from Earnshaw's performance."

George Praised.
"As I watched him, do you know what I kept thinking about—those machines you see rolling and tossing out cigarettes, I have never seen a pitcher display such superb form and control from the first to the last out. He looked to me as though he could have gone right on pitching the same mechanically perfect all day and the next."

Earnshaw, in two World series, has pitched five games against the Cardinals. In the fifth game a year ago he held them to two hits, in seven innings, before giving way to a pinch-hitter and Grove, who received credit for the victory as a result of a homer by Jimmy Foxx in the ninth.

Earnshaw has blanked the Cardinals in 38 of the 42 innings he has worked against them. He set them down scoreless for 22 innings in the row last year and he has run off 10 scoreless innings this year. In five games he has yielded only four runs in as many scattered innings, and only 21 hits. He has fanned 32 Red Birds.

It's a marvelous record, surpassed for a single series only by the superb collection of three shutouts registered by Mathewson in 1905 against the Athletics.

White Sox Get Revenge At Last

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—(P)—Donie Bush and his luckless White Sox, who were kicked around unmercifully by the American league clubs last season, had their big day at last today.

They were Chicago city champions for the first time in five years, their pockets were lined with the big end of the players' purse and they had a big time joshing Cub followers by wishing they played in the National league instead of the American. Bush hit something more to be happy about as it was generally believed he might after all be re-hired as manager of the team for 1932.

A six-run rally in the fourth inning, backed by Al Thomas' fourth pitching, gave the White Sox a 7 to 2 victory in the seventh and final game of the long series at Wrigley field yesterday. The third place holders in the 1931 National league race didn't have a chance after that and the White Sox fans cheered so much they almost lost their voices.

one of the most sensational World Series of all times.

A's Come Back

It was do or die day for the mighty Athletics yesterday, battered and wounded by the surprising Red Birds, strangled for two straight games by the magnificent three-hit left-handed pitching of trail Bill Hallahan, the snarling, doggedly vengeful two-hit epic of the A's life long foe, grizzled Burleigh Grimes, and one amazing Pepper Martin.

It was a day when the Athletics, thirsting for three straight world championships if only to answer the prayer of a grand old man seeking his last baseball record, suddenly found themselves, the first American champions to trail the National league rulers in five years, struggling on the brink of World Series catastrophe. They talked the situation over among themselves, they listened to Connie's plea, watched the lanky old fellow with the thin esthetic face of a priest tap Earnshaw on the shoulder and say:

"George, you've got to do it for me, just this one thing." Leading the comeback surge, magnificent in his power, was Earnshaw as he turned back all but one of the Cardinals, Martin, while the big runners of Connie's crew, finding the range at last against the pitching of Sergeant Gabby Street's second stringers, battered out a 3 to 0 victory.

Inning after inning, Earnshaw, pitching perhaps the greatest game in World Series history, showed the Cardinals down to add another two-hit classic to a string of pitching performances that knows no equal in past series history. There was one fly in his ointment, the chunky dogged figure of John "Pepper" Martin, freshman outfielder who is playing this series for the Cardinals, his first in major league baseball, as no rookie ever has before him.

Surprising

As the series wears on, the wonderment increases steadily at the fanaticism with which this young man, an ordinary hitter during the National league season, assaults the offerings of every Athletic's pitcher. While the veterans of the Cardinal clover were vainly picking at Earnshaw's dazzling speed and uncanny curves, looting them feebly into the air or rolling them vainly through the dirt to the infielders, "Pepper" took his cut freely and wholeheartedly and smacked "Big Jarge" for two hits, the entire Cardinal quota.

All the strategy that the sideline critics could muster in the face of the silence of both Connie Mack and Gabby Street indicated that a left hand pitching duel today between "Rube" Walberg, or even Lefty Grove, the battered master for the Athletics, and Bill Hallahan for the Cards in the last of three games here.

FALFURRIAS IS OPPONENT

Bulldogs Expect Tough Tilt With Visitors From Dairy Lands

BY O. I. COX

McALLEN, Oct. 7.—The Valley's first night football game will be played here Friday when the McAllen Bulldogs collide with Falfurrias high under the floodlights.

Night baseball was inaugurated last season, but never before have Valley fans seen the schoolboy pastime played under floodlights.

The game here will be regarded as a test for such plants in this section. If the game is a wholehearted success, it is likely that other schools will follow suit next season. Corpus Christi and Austin, both formerly members of district eight, now are using night plants.

Falfurrias is said to have a strong unit this season although little is known of its record.

Houstonians Tough.
The Bulldogs are fresh from a neat trimming at the hands of John Reagan (Houston). The Valley club went down in the Port City by a too heavy count of 52-0. This loss will probably have the McAllen lads on their toes ready to wreak vengeance on some club with less reserve strength than the Houston club exhibited.

That the McAllen team lacked reserves was shown by their inability to hold the Bayou team to a 13-0 score in the first half of the tilt.

BRIGHT DAY
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—(P)—More good baseball weather was in prospect for the fifth game of the World Series at Shibe park today, as the sun broke through thick mist that enveloped the city at dawn.

A warm southerly wind was blowing and the temperature was in the seventies.

Stecher Is Ill; Card Rearranged

With Young Stecher reporting as being down with the flu for the past week, Promoter Ernie Stephens immediately began arranging his program for Thursday night at the Legion sports arena differently, until he has now lined up one of the best cards seen here featuring the light heavyweight boys.

Fred Kimball, the Columbia flash, will meet George Craig, the Tulsa blacksmith, in the feature go of the card, with Randall Huks, Toledo strong man, matched against Tony Le Blanc in the semi-windup.

ARMY, NAVY IN CHARITY GAME

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(P)—The echo of clinking dollars for the unemployed stirred by the charging football teams of Annapolis and West Point again will be heard this year.

The two service teams have agreed to meet, probably Dec. 12, with all receipts going to alleviate distress of the jobless. Either New York, Philadelphia or Chicago will get the game with the Gotham polo grounds holding the most votes now.

Army and navy officials, who were asked for the benefit performance by the Salvation Army, agreed to it yesterday. The Salvation Army sponsored last year's contest in New York which netted $400,000 for the unemployed and a 6 to 0 victory for army.

That was the first meeting of the two institutions on the gridiron since they severed relations four years ago after differences over eligibility requirements. These difficulties again will be left unsettled as they march on the field in December.

SAN BENITANS BEAT LOCALS

Scholes Averages 206 At Ten Pins; Gets One 248 Score

Led by Scholes who averaged 206 for three games, a team of San Benito ten-pin bowlers defeated a Brownsville team on the Campbell Alleys here Tuesday night by 130 pins. The total scores were 2588 to 2458.

The San Benitans won the first two games hands down, but the Brownsville bowlers came back strong in the last contest and were beaten out only by two pins. The count in this game was San Benito 841, Brownsville 839.

Scholes was easily the individual star of the evening with his 190-248-180-618. His second score was one of the highest seen here in several months.

Wharburton, also of San Benito, was second with a 582 for three. His second game was a 314.

Burt Hinkley, Jr., led the Brownsville team with a 519 with Wentworth second with a 516.

Schreiner Will Play D. Baker; Witt Does Well

(Special to The Herald)

KERRVILLE, Oct. 7.—Schreiner Institute's 1931 Mountaineers are training hard this week to meet the Daniel Baker college Hill Billies on the Schreiner field Friday afternoon in the Kerrville team's first college game.

General work-outs have been unusually hard the past several days since the Schreiner-23rd infantry game here last Friday. Schreiner won over the army 39-0, but indications are that Coach "Bully" Gilstrap saw several weaknesses in the team and is whipping the squad into shape for a hard tussle this weekend.

All men are in good condition and most of those few who were injured during training camp are improving to the point where they can don football togs again.

Schreiner has not had a game with Daniel Baker College since 1926 when Gilstrap's famous undefeated eleven of that year downed the Hill Billies 10-0.

The starting line-up Friday will probably include some of the following Schreiner men: Buster Nelson, Joe Smart (c), Bob Biering, Oswald Thraikill, Boone Magnus, Harold Griffin, Doyal Pruitt, Wilbur Squares, C. R. Myers, Wendell "Suitcase" Simpson, Charlie Johnson, Audrey McCamey, Alfred Turner, Vick Douglas, Frank Hubbel, Ed James and Junior Wirtz.

In the Schreiner-Army game Billie Witt of Weslaco scored the last touchdown of the game on a line play while eleven reserve team men were seeing service in the tussle. Witt is looking good and his score was the only one of the game not made by a first-string regular.

BENNY JEERED IN COME-BACK

Crowd Refused to Believe 'Knockout' Of Pal Silvers

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(P)—Benny Leonard has started his comeback campaign with a knockout victory over Pal Silvers of Brooklyn with the jeers of a crowd of 15,000 as the principal accompaniment. Leonard felled Silvers in the second round of their ten round bout in the Queensboro stadium last night and Silvers stayed down for the full count although most experts at the ringside thought the blows were anything but hard. At the count of ten, Silvers bounced to his feet apparently unhurt, and ready to continue. Referee Arthur Donovan waved him to his corner and lifted Leonard's hand as the winner.

Benny (a bit plump around the waistline, showed the effects of his seven-year layoff from the ring. The undefeated lightweight champion appeared "stage struck" in the first round and the sudden ending of the bout in the second round made it impossible to deduce just what chance Leonard has of winding the middle-weight title, the goal on which he says his eyes are fixed.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT
(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK—Benny Leonard, New York, knocked out Pal Silvers, Brownsville, N. J., (2).

KEEP KISSABLE

Charming women are first won by OLD GOLDS' appealing taste. But their enthusiasm doubles when they find that OLD GOLDS do not taint the breath or mar the whiteness of pearly teeth.

That's because OLD GOLD is a pure-tobacco cigarette. Made from the finest nature-flavored tobaccos. So good, it needs no added flavoring.

It's "foreign flavoring", not good tobacco, that leaves unwanted after-maths. Play safe. Smoke pure-tobacco OLD GOLDS. They leave nothing behind but pleasant recollections.
